TROUBLED MAINE.

LATTERS IN A CRITICAL CONDITION---MEN DRILLING.

The State House to be Taken---Mayor Nash's Letter---Arrival of the Military.

AUGUSTA, Me., Jan. 24.—The general impression now is that matters are in a more critical condition than they have been for some time. Crowds are collecting at various points, and secret clans of armed men are drilling, and other circumstances tend to create alarm. The Chronicle (Greenback labor organ), of Auburn, states that the State House must be taken, though it costs thousands of lives. The government does not appear to be alarmed, however, and will make the State House perfectly impregnable. The first military company that ever entered the State House marched in at midnight. Pillsbury, Blood, Channing and others, are known to be enrolling in every county in the State. Men are collected in the country towns ready for J. L. Smith's call, and Captain Black, of Augusta, is drilling men nightly.

Mayor Nash addressed the following letter to the Governor last night:

"In view of the threatening attitude of persons hostile to the present government of the State, I feel constrained to say to your Excellency that I fear my civil police force will be unable to sufficiently protect public property at the Capitol, or even hold the possession of the building itself against such a force as our public enemies seem to be willing and able to bear against it.

From consultation with the military authorities Davis became thoroughly convinced of the seriousness of the situation and that the position of Mayor Nash is perfectly sound. He therefore ordered to the State house the Capital Guards and the Richmond Light Infantry, who at 10 o'clock a. m. were there. The Auburn Light Infantry will leave that place for the capital at 2 o'clock this morning and other military forces will be brought if necessary. Information of the operations of the Fusionists comes from reliable men in each county of their designs to take the house at Pillsbury as a last hope. It is hoped that the prompt action of Governor Davis will avert the trouble. Men are known to be ready at the call of Smith in Lincoln and Somerset counties who are to take the sleighs across the country with prompt action. Colonel Peakes prevented the movement in Picataquis county. All the armories in the State are under guard. The Republicans mean to hold possession and if the State troops are inadequate the President will be called upon for aid.

BOSTON, Jan. 24.—The Herald's Augusta special says that three companies of troops and a Gatling gun are at the garrison of the State House. When the Republicans meet this forenoon there will be as little show of arms as possible, and the soldiery will be kept in the back ground. The Republicans feel well braced up this morning, and generally urging the dispersion of the Union Hall Legislature. The sort of utterances, which set the authorities thinking, are such as the following:

Pillsbury says in his daily Standard of this morning: Men of Maine, the next article on the programme is to disperse by force the Legislature that is convened in Union Hall. Are you, as freemen, willing to submit to this outrage? See to it that your representatives are protected. This is a culmination of outrage inflicted upon the Democrats and Greenbackers by the stalwart pimps of the Republican party.

Who is the man that will now step out of our ranks and take side with the cowardly men entrenched in the State House, who tremble at the sounds of their own voices, and do not feel safe unless backed up by bayonets of the State militia? Let the end be what it may, history will read that Corporal Davis was the first man in the State of Maine to authorize the array of bayonets at the State House to keep from its portals the citizens of the commonwealth. Every military company in Maine is under arms.

Captain Black, of the Fusion staff, says that all he asks is to be arrested.

Gould, the legal advisor to the Fusion Government, characterizes the moving of the troops as a desperate act, and was sure to redound to political advantage of the Fusionists. He says it is the biggest blunder yet made by the Republicans.

The Fusion Legislature met with diminished numbers.

Speaker Talbott told a reporter that his house needs protection more than a Republican's. The Fusionists show signs of nervousness over the state of affairs; and should the Fusion Legislature go for Biddeford, it is likely to find doors at any hall it may engage, guarded by soldiers. "No fooling any longer," is Republican talk to-day.

The State House is converted into a fort or barracks. Stoves have been set up in the cellar to cook rations of beef, etc., for the soldiers. The Governor is strongly urged to at once disperse the Union Hall Legislature and the Fusion Government, but whether he will act until the first of next week is doubtful. Sunday night the State troops will all be under arms. The Republican authorities assert if there is to be civil war the responsibility rests upon the Fusionists.

Questions reported by the Committee to the Fusionist Legislature to be submitted to the Court and laid on the table until Monday and which are preceded by a long preamble setting forth the facts of the organization of the Legislature are as follows: The first was the organization of the Senate and the election of the President and Secretary thereof, on the first Wednesday in January, 1880, as set forth in the foregoing statement of facts and as appears by the record thereof, legal and in accordance with the Constitution and laws of the State. The second was the organization of the House of Representatives and the election of Speaker and Clerk thereof on the first Wednesday in January, 1880, as set forth in the foregoing statement of facts and appears by record thereof legal and in accordance with the Constitution and laws.

The third were bodies of persons who had their meetings on the evening of the 12th of January as set forth in the foregoing statement of facts competent at that time and under circumstances stated, to organize the Senate and House of Representatives for the State of Maine, to constitute the 59th Legislature and were they legally organized as such and do they constitute a legal Legislature under the Constitution and laws of this State. Fourth, if the Senate, organized on the first Wednesday in January, 1880, in the manner set forth in the foregoing statement of facts was not legally organized is that body of Senators elected by or through which the Senate may or must be organized, and that body having adjourned from day to day from the said first Wednesday of January to the present time. Fifth. If the House Representatives were organized on the first Wednesday in January, 1880, in the manner set forth in the foregoing statement of facts was not legally organized is that the body of the convention of the members of the House of Representatives elected by or through which the House of Representatives may or must be organized and that body having adjourned from day to day from the said first Wednesday in January to the present time.

AUGUSTA, Jan. 24.—The Senate met and adjourned until 4 P. M. without transacting any business.

In the House the Judiciary committee, ordered to inquire what action, if any, is necessary to prevent any person or persons from falsely pretending to assume the functions and duties of any of the State officers.

Hutchinson presented the following:

WHEREAS, Information is received that a certain person has been engaged in enrolling and enlisting men in a manner and for purposes unauthorized by the laws of this State; and,

Whereas, Such enlistment and organizations tend to disturbance of the public peace and to disorder and revolution, therefore,

Resolved, That a joint committee of seven on the part of the House, with such of the Senate as may join, be appointed for the purpose of investigating the truth of such reports and to ascertain what action if any should be taken and to make report of their doings to the House, and said committee to have the power to send for persons and papers. Passed and the committee appointed. The House then adjourned till Monday legal.

BOSTON, Jan. 24.—An Augusta special says it is feared that in case the Fusion Legislature is dispersed riots will break out in Lewiston and Beddeford. The State troops will continue under arms until further orders. Governor Davis will not issue his proclamation commanding the Fusion Legislature to disperse until he has exhausted every peaceful resource, but will not give them an undue amount of time for cogitation. He considers the majority of the Fusion legislators the dupes of Pillsbury and other men.

A special from Beddeford, says that Ferguson Haines, City Treasurer, has sent $22,000, the amount of State tax, to White, the Fusionist State Treasurer.

More of the Exodusters.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—The Senate Committee on the colored exodus to-day examined J. P. Dukehart, of Baltimore, the Southern agent of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Company. He testified that he had made several visits to North Carolina in the interest of this Company to secure as large a share as possible of the exodust travel, and effected arrangements with the local promoters of the movement by which the Baltimore & Ohio Road obtained transportation of all the colored people who have gone from North Carolina to Indiana at reduced rates. In all of the arrangements the company agreed to pay Z. Taylor Evans, of Goldsboro, (a colored man who worked up the emigration) drawback of one dollar per head for each full fare passenger. Fifty cents each on all half tickets sold. This was a well known standing inducement held out by himself and agents of the competing roads to get men like Evans, Perry and Williams to get up as large an emigration as possible.

Evans told witness he commenced working up the exodus system months ago by means of mass meetings, secret societies, etc., while in North Carolina; had seen many circulars asserting that the colored people would find plenty of work in Indiana at wages of from $1 to $ 50 per day. Perry and Williams also circulated reports that the emigrants on reaching Washington would be provided with new clothes and transportation to Indiana or Kansas. The circulars included what purported to be certificates from the North Carolina colored people who had gone to Indiana and that they had found work and advised their friends to follow. The witness thought the exodus would continue as long as the negroes could raise money to pay fare or until checked by unfavorable reports from their friends at the other end of the line. In this event he would go to Indiana and try to secure them as passengers back over the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad line.

Railroad Consolidations.

NEW YORK, Jan. 24.—A consolidation of the Union Pacific, Kansas Pacific and Denver Pacific Railroads was accomplished this afternoon, and the new consolidated company will be known as the Union Pacific Railroad Company. The following officers were elected: President—Sidney Dillon; Vice-President—Elisha Atkins; Secretary and Treasurer—Henry McFarland; Directors—Fred. Ames, Elisha Atkins, Ezra H. Baker and F. Gordon Dexter, of Boston; Carlos S. Greeley, of St. Louis; Sidney Dillon, Russell Sage, J. Gould, Salon Humphreys, David Daws and Thomas T. Eckert, New York; W. L. Scott, Erie, Pa.; Greenville M. Dodge, Iowa; John Sharp, Salt Lake City; S. S. H. Clark, Omaha. The plan of consolidation is the exchange of the stock of three roads for that of the new company, dollar for dollar, at par. The bonds of the road will remain as at present, and there will be liens in the several divisions as originally placed.

Committed Suicide.

NEW YORK, Jan. 24.—A Columbia, South Carolina, special says: "Preston D. Mood, editor of the Clarendon Press, and son of Henry M. Mood, one of the most distinguished Methodist preachers in South Carolina, committed suicide at Manning Village last night by blowing out his brains with a pistol. Mood had addressed a beautiful Jewess and threatened to kill himself if she refused his offer. Notwithstanding his threat the fair daughter of Israel rejected him and the rash young journalist thus put an end to his life."

Serious Accident.

NEW YORK, Jan. 24—12:50.—This morning as the emigrant train on an elevated railroad was going south on Eighth avenue, the engine jumped the track, caused by a misplaced swith, and fell to the ground—a distance of twenty-five feet. Seven men on the engine fell with it; two were seriously injured, while the others were slightly hurt.

A Protest Against the Third Term.

Mr. George William Curtis speaks to the point in the current number of Harper's Weekly. He says:

"There is no more intolerable and unrepublican nonsense than the talk of the necessity of 'a strong man' in the President's chair. It is the cry of distrust of American institutions. It is a cry welcome to those who despise a republic and disbelieve in it. What we need is not the government of a strong man, but of a strong people; that is, of a people strong in their loyalty to law, strong in their faith in free popular institutions, strong to maintain every bulwark of liberty and the republic, which the experience of a century and the example of our best and wisest patriots have erected. Our government cannot be 'stronger' than it is without ceasing to be a popular government. There is no necessity for the Republican party to make the only nomination which would arouse an indignant protest against the theory that any citizen is essential to the safety of the country, and that the soundest Conservative rules and traditions must be overthrown in order to put the executive power into his hands.

GEN. GRANT.

GRANT'S OLD FRIENDS.

"No Desire to Be Rid of Them, for He Feeds Upon the Incense They Offer."

New York Sun.

We observed some days ago in a respected morning contemporary a letter from Washington, in which it was gravely set forth that Grant, having learned a great deal in his tour around the world, shrank from the touch of "the soiled hands" of some of his old cronies, and really regarded their advances as an insult to him. If this be so, the men who have him in charge, and supply the cash for his peregrinations, and the demonstrations in his honor, have exhibited a singular want of respect for his wishes. On his arrival at Washington—the very place where he is said to have made this remarkable revelation of his mind—he was welcomed almost exclusively by "soiled hands." The Tyners, the Cresswells, the Shepherds and the Babcocks were there in force, and the vigilant eyes of the press failed to discover any other kin.

It was understood that the managers originally intended to keep this class in the background, but it is also understood that the plan was abandoned in obedience to Grant's personal wishes, and as he came further East he was gradually more and more closely surrounded by them. Boss Shepherd attached himself early, and at Philadelphia the whole gang swarmed into open view, and were publicly recognized by their friend and patron. Belknap had a long private conference with him, and Robeson stood up with him to receive at the Union League. Even John Patterson turned up along with his old friends, Robeson, Horace Porter, Dr. Newman, and the rest, as "guest of the city," fed, liquored and lodged at the Continental and at the expense of the tax-payers, because they were known to be the peculiar friends and most acceptable companions of the ex-President. To these men and others like them, Grant sticks to-day as he stuck to them through his years of extravagance and corruption while in power. He has no desire to be rid of them, for he feeds upon the incense they offer. He could not escape them, if he would, only more than Hayes could escape Wells, Anderson, and the other scoundrels who had to do with the fraud of 1876, and are now in office, maintained in luxury at the cost of the swindled.

STATE NEWS.

(Correspondence under this head is furnished by regular contributors to the News.)

WAKE.

APEX, Jan. 23.—On Monday night last the storehouse of Messrs. Alvin & Joseph Holleman was entered, by false key, and a portion of the flour, tobacco, sugar, coffee, shoes, cloth, etc., etc., taken therefrom. No clue was had to this bold outrage until yesterday, when some parties living about two miles off reported that they had found a "young storehouse" in the loft of an unoccupied shanty near by where they lived. It was found that the stolen goods corresponded with those remaining in the store. On last night (Thursday) a strong force of reliable men was stationed at said house, and about 1 o'clock a voice was heard in the woods not far off 'possom hunting. Soon the seeking hushed and a man and woman made their appearance at the house, the man went in and the woman stood out to watch. When fully satisfied as to the situation, the guard advanced and closed the house, while the woman took to her heels. After repeated demands and some threats the inmate makes his appearance and is found to be one James Gill, a notorious rogue and a man of general bad character. He was taken before Squire Betts to-day and bound over to court, the woman appearing against him and divulging the whole matter. He goes to jail to-day to await a further hearing.

ORANGE.

CHAPEL HILL, Jan. 22.—But little news from our quiet little town.

REV. A. A. DIXON, pastor of the Baptist church here, has left for Asheville, to take charge of the church at that place. His successor has not been secured.

The citizens of this community are much interested in our Railroad prospects. It has been decided to run the road to University Station, some 8½ miles distant. It is expected that work will soon begin. The engineer has already made his appearance, and the route is to be surveyed at once.

Some new families have moved into town, and there is considerable improvement going on in the way of cleaning up, painting, etc.

Dr. Ledoux, the popular Director of the Experiment Station, has accepted an offer to a position in New York city. His many friends will regret his departure.

ANON.

WAKE.

WAKE FOREST, Jan. 24.—Late yesterday evening our village was made to sorrow at the death of Mr. Lockey Simmons, father of our much loved Professor of that name. The funeral services were conducted to-day by Dr. Pritchard in the college chapel. He was very near eighty-four years old, and has been a devout Christian for about seventy years and a member of the Baptist church. Peace to his ashes.

GRANVILLE.

OXFORD, Jan. 24.—The weather is clear and cool. Farmers are busy in preparing land for the next crop.

Trade in Oxford is quite lively yet. Fine tobacco is bringing good prices at the warehouses here.

For marrying the season is over, and Captain Jo. Townes will be called upon for license at long intervals.

The health of the people is generally good. There were more marriages and deaths from September to the first of January than ever before within the same period in this county. Nearly all those who died were old people.

There is no court news to impart, but there probably will be when the Superior Court convenes. Granville people don't litigate much.

Both political parties seem to be in a dormant or chrysalis state. They are as quiet as the tomb, but sleeping Epaminondas will awake after a little, and at every cross roads you will imagine that you are passing some living stentor, for little office seekers with mighty loud voices will be there offering themselves to their dear, bleeding country.

Samuel Ross, eighty years old, a professed infidel and a great sinner in every sense of the word, professed religion last Sunday.

Real estate sales are quite few, and what is sold in Oxford, Henderson and contiguous to the new road, is at most exorbitant figures. Land has advanced in this section from 500 to 1000 per cent.

On the 17th, at Mr. Gideon Perry's, there was a grand ball which lasted until the "wee small hours of the night." At 3 o'clock, a. m., the guests partook of a sumptuous collation with considerable gusto. Mr. Perry knows how to please his guests.

Since work began in earnest on the Oxford & Henderson Railroad there seems to have been quite an impetus given to the business of both places. These places will vie with Durham as to which will pay the highest prices for tobacco.

THE DISTRESS IN IRELAND.

The Condition of Affairs in the Western Districts of Ireland.

London Telegraph.

The first cabin into which I went was a place that an Englishman would think too bad for his pig. Its floor, of earth and stones, reeked with damp, and water even stood in the hollows; the only furniture was a few cups and saucers, a stool or two, and as many tubs and pots; in one corner a mass of dirty straw had evidently been used as a bed, and on the wretched hearth smoked rather than burned an apology for a fire. The man of the house—shoeless and coatless, pale and haggard—sat idle upon a bag of Indian meal, beyond which his food resources did not go, and through the gloom around the hearth—there was no window to speak of—could be dimly made out one or two crouching female figures. I never saw anything in the way of a home in a civilized country—and I have seen a good deal—more appalling than this. Yet here was the case of a man renting three acres of land, and usually getting what he would be content to call a living out of them. Now, alas! he and the thousands of others like him have reached the end of their miserable last season's crop, an I beyond them but a little way lies starvation. The half bag of Indian meal was all the family had, nothing more remaining upon which, by sale or mortgage, money could be raised, and to the question, "What will you do when the meal gives out?" came the despairing answer. "The good Lord only knows."

Not far from this I was shown by my melancholy attendants into an equally wretched hovel, where a widow with seven young children was fighting the bitter battle of life, and rapidly getting worsted in the struggle. She herself had gone out gathering what she could of stuff to make a fire wherewith to cook the family dinner, consisting—eh, my brothers in comfortable English homes—of a single cabbage! But the poor little children, half-clothed, thin and hollow-eyed, were there to plead with heart-rending eloquence for aid. Once more I heard the old story. The land had yielded nothing; no turf could be obtained for fuel short of a journey of eight miles, and the family had touched absolute destitution. Over the way, in another apology for a dwelling place, I found three poor women trying to kindle a fire with damp beanstalks, their only crop, in order to cook a dish of Indian meal, their only food.

LINCOLN'S CANE.

The Story of its Wanderings and its Recovery in Troy.

Troy Evening Standard.

Many years ago, when President Lincoln was a poor lawyer in Springfield, Ill., he carried about with him a plain ebony cane, with a silver ferrule, and marked "A. Lincoln." The cane may have cost $5.

When Lincoln found himself in Washington he still carried the old ebony, being loth to part with his old friend. One day a delegation of friends waited upon and presented him with an elegant modern cane with an elaborately engraved gold handle. He accepted the gift more to accommodate his friends than to please himself. The old cane was given to a trusty valet who often frequented a prominent restaurant in Washington, where nightly assembled many professional men, actors, lawyers and musicians. Among the number was A. R. Phelps, the first manager of the Grand Central Theatre. Hard pushed for money, the valet pawned the cane with the proprietor of the restaurant, and from the latter it passed into the hands of Phelps. In his vocation as a theatrical manager and actor Phelps struck Troy some three or four years ago and assumed the management of the Grand Central Theatre for Thos. Milier, the proprietor. Finally adversity overtook him. Misfortune fell heavily upon him, and he with his wife and six children, was left in the direst distress and he pawned the cane to a down town citizen for $25. He then left town and has not since been seen here.

Robert T. Lincoln, son of the dead President, learning that the cane was in this city, corresponded with Chief Markham with a view of obtaining possession of it. Yesterday morning Markham received track of its whereabouts and served a search-warrant upon the proprietor of a meat market at the corner of Federal and North Fourth streets. There the cane was recovered. In the police court yesterday afternoon before Justice Donohue the matter of the disposition of the cane was taken up and postponed for two weeks. It is supposed Phelps gave the cane as security for the meat consumed by his family.

The Female Statesmen Before the Senate Judiciary Committee.

Special to the Richmond Dispatch.

WASHINGTON, D C., Jan. 23.—A large number of the most prominent women's-rights advocates in this country were early at the rooms of the Judiciary Committee to-day. Some wore smiles, others curls, and others still a grave appearance, as if fully alive to the weighty import of the meeting. Mr. Thurman was at his post ahead of time, and was as polite as a widower. When Senator Davis came in he looked not altogether comfortable, and took a back seat. Before Senator McDonald took a seat, however, one of the sisters, with middle-aged curls, went to him and said, "I want to introduce you to Susan B." The Senator consented, and Miss Anthony, in a pleasant voice, said nice things about Indiana. The following sisters made manly and most sens ble speeches in favor of the sixteenth amendment, which is to give to women the right to vote: Zereida G. Wallace, Indiana; Elizabeth L. Saxon, Louisiana; Mary A. Stuart, Delaware; Lucinda B. Chandler, Pennsylvania; Julia Smith Parker, Connecticut; Nancy R. Allen, Iowa; and Susan B. Anthony, New York. After the meeting was over they ascended to the upper part of the Senate chamber in an elevator, seeming highly pleased with the success of their addresses and the reception accorded them by Mr. Thurman's committee.

Do not trifle with the affection of a young girl; it is worse than trifling with a bad cold, for this can be cured by Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

Indigestible Bread.

The reason why adulterated baking powders make bread and biscuits very indigestible, is because they harden the gluten of the wheat and render it less soluble. The purity and perfect combination of Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder makes all articles easy of digestion.

A BRAKEMAN AT CHURCH

WHAT HE THOUGHT OF THE DENOMINATIONS.

The Branch, Limited Express, Broad and Narrow Gauges, Scrub and Popular, Nice and River Roads.

Burlington Hawkeye.

On the road once more, with Lebanon fading away in the distance, the fat passenger drumming idly on the window pane, the cross passenger sound asleep and the tall, thin passenger reading "General Grant's Tour Around the World" and wondering why "Green's August Flower" should be printed above the doors of "A Buddhist Temple at Benares." To me comes the brakeman, and seating himself on the arm of the seat, says:

"I went to church yesterday."

"Yes?" I said, with that interested inflection that asks for more. "And what church did you attend?"

"Which do you guess?" he asked.

"Some union mission church," I hazarded.

"Now," he said, "I don't like to run on these branch roads very much. I don't often go to church, and when I do, I want to run on the main line, where your run is regular, and you go on schedule time and don't have to wait on connections. I don't like to run on a branch. Good enough, but I don't like it."

"Episcopal?" I guessed.

"Limited express," he said, "all palace cars and two dollars extra for a seat, fast time and only stop at the big stations. Nice line, but too exhaustive for a brakeman. All train men in uniform, conductors punch and lantern silverplated, and no train boys allowed. Then the passengers are allowed to talk back at the conductor, and it makes them too free and easy. No, I couldn't stand the palace cars. Rich road, through. Don't often hear of a receiver being appointed for that line. Some mighty nice people travel on it, too."

"Universalist?" I suggested.

"Broad gauge," said the brakeman; "does too much complimentary business. Everybody travels on a pass. Conductor doesn't get a fare once in fifty miles. Stops at all flag stations and won't run into anything but a union depot. No smoking car on the train. Train orders are rather vague though, and the train men don't get along well with the passengers. No, I don't go to the Universalist, though I know some awful good men who run on that road."

"Presbyterian?" I asked.

"Narrow gauge, eh?" said the brakeman, 'pretty track, straight as a rule; tunnel right through a mountain rather than go around it; spirit-level grade; passengers have to show their ticket before they get on the train. Mighty strict road, but the cars are a little narrow; have to sit one in a seat, and no room in the aisle to dance. Then there is no stop over tickets allowed; got to go straight through to the station you're ticketed for or you can't get on at all. When the car's full no extra coaches; cars built at the shops to hold just so many and nobody else allowed on. But you don't often hear of an accident on that road. It's run right up to the rules."

"Maybe you joined the Free Thinkers?"

"Scrub road," said the brakeman, "dirt road bed and no ballast; no time card and no train dispatcher. All trains run wild and every engineer makes his own time, just as he pleases. Smoke if you want to; kind of a go-as-you please road. Too many side tracks, and every switch wide open all the time, with the switchman sound asleep and the target lamp dead out. Get on as you please and get off when you want to. Don't have to show your tickets, and the conductor isn't expected to do anything but amuse the passengers. No sir; I was offered a pass, but I don't like the line. I don't like to travel on a road that has no terminus. Do you know, sir, I asked a division superintendent where that road run to, and he said he hoped to die if he knew. I asked him if the general superintendent could tell me, and he said he didn't believe they had a general superintendent, and if they had, he didn't know anything more about the road than the passengers. I asked him who he reported to, and he said "nobody." I asked a conductor who he got his orders from, and he said he didn't take orders from any living man or dead ghost. And when I asked the engineer who he got his orders from, he said he'd like to see anybody give him orders; he'd run that train to suit himself, or he'd run it into the ditch. Now you see, sir, I'm a railroad man, and I don't care to run on a road that has no time, makes no connections, runs nowhere, and has no superintendent. It may be all right, but I've railroaded too long to understand it."

"Maybe you went to the Congregational church?" I said.

"Popular road," said the brakeman; "an old road, too—one of the very oldest in this country. Good road-bed and comfortable cars. Well managed road, too; directors don't interfere with division superintendents and train orders. Road's mighty popular, but it's pretty independent, too. Yes, didn't one of the division superintendents down east discontinue one of the oldest stations on this line two or three years ago? But it's a mighty pleasant road to travel on. Always has such a splendid class of passengers."

"Did you try the Methodist?" I said.

"Now you're shouting," he said, with some enthusiasm. "Nice road, eh?" Fast time and plenty of passengers. Engines carry a power of steam, and don't you forget it; steam-gauge shows a hundred and enough all the time. Lively road; and when the conductor shouts 'all aboard' you can hear him to the next station. Every train-light shines like a head-light. Stop-over checks are given on all through tickets: passenger can drop off the train as often as he likes, do the station two or three days and hop on the next revival train that comes thundering along. Good, whole-souled companionable conductors; ain't a road in the country where the passengers feel more at home. No passes; every passenger pays full traffic rates for his ticket. Wesleyan house air brake on all trains, too; pretty safe road, but I didn't ride over it yesterday.

"Perhaps you tried the Baptist?" I guessed once more.

"Ah, ha!" said the brakeman, "she's a daisy isn't she? River road; beautiful curves; sweep around anything to keep close to the river, but it's all steel rail and rock ballast, single track all the way and not a side track from the round house to the terminus. Takes a heap of water to run it through, double tanks at every station, and there isn't an engine in the shops that can pull a pound or run a mile with less than two gauges. But it runs through a lovely country; these river roads always do; river on one side hills on the other, and it's a steady climb up the grade all the way till the run ends where the fountain head of the river begins. Yes, sir, I'll take the river road every time for a lovely trip, surconnections and good time, and no prairie dust blowing in at the windows. And yesterday, when the conductor came around for the tickets with a little basket punch, I didn't ask him to pass me, but I paid my fare like a little man—twenty-five cents for an hour's run and a little concert by the passengers thrown in. I tell you, Pilgrim, you take the river road when you want—"

But just here the long whistle from the engine announced a station, and the brakeman hurried to the door shouting: "Zionsville! This train makes no stops between here and Indianapolis!"

A MAN SURVIVES A BRAINING.

John Harris' Wonderful Recovery After Having His Head Split Open.

Gold Hill News.

John Harris, who had his head split open by a falling axe at the new Yellow Jacket shaft some two years ago, is again on the Comstock. Although that axe fell about one hundred and sixty feet upon his head, and he lost in consequence a strip of skull-bone four inches long and two and a half inches wide, he has taken that head to England with him and brought it back, and thinks a good deal of it and with it yet. His is one of those exceptional cases in surgery of which there are not a half a dozen in the books, and which ranks with that where a tamping iron, blown by a prematurely discharged blast, passed through a man's head from chin to crown, and yet failed to kill him.

The gash made by this axe in Harris' head was large enough to kill half a dozen men. When the bones were taken by the surgeons from the wound the large vein between the lobes of the brain sent a torrent of blood gushing forth. It was staunched with lint and the man rallied. The surgeon feared to remove the lint lest he should bleed to death, and it remained some two weeks till it became so far decayed as to force its removal. Contrary to expectation no blood followed, nor was there any secondary hemorrhage from the wound. Harris has pretty much recovered from the effects of the accident. He says he experiences no head trouble whatever, but he has a hitch in his walk, a sort of a jerk, a let-go-and-go-on movement, which is the result of the hurt. He is a wonderfully good man, for one upon whom the experiment of dropping an axe one hundred and sixty feet upon his head was successfully tried.

ANDREW JACKSON'S WIFE.

Her Devotion to Her Husband.

A letter, just printed for the first time, in the Cincinnati Commercial.

FEB. 8, 1813.—My Dear Husband: Your letter of the 18th January from the mouth of the Cumberland River came safe to hand. It was everything to me. I rejoiced, I was happy to hear you were in health. It was my nightly prayer to the Almighty God. My thoughts are forever on thee. Where'er I go, where'er I turn, my thoughts, my fears, my doubts distress me. Then a little my hope revives again, and that keeps me alive. Were it not for that, I must sink; I should die in my present situation. But my blessed Redeemer is making intercession with the Father for us to meet again, to restore you to my bosom, where every vein, every pulse beats high for your health, your safety, & all your wishes crowned. Do not, my beloved husband, let the love of country, fame, & honor make you forget you have one. Without you, I would think them all empty shadows.

You will say this is not the language of a patriot, but it's the language of a faithful wife, one I know you esteem & love sincerely, but Oh! how many pangs, how many heart-rending sighs has your absence cost me. My time passes heavily, & I am not in good health, but I hope to see you once more on this globe, & after this frail life ends, be with you in more happier climes, where I shall experience no more painful separation, & then I shall be at rest. I feel a foretaste of the joys that are to the virtuous souls. Gracious God, help me to pray for your happiness. I was delighted to learn that you were pleased with Mr. Blackman & the other two clergymen, & the society in general.

Our little Andrew is well, the most affectionate little darling on earth. Often does he ask me in bed not to cry, sweet papa will come home to you again, and I feel my cheeks to know if I am shedding tears. One of the extreme cold nights he got a little vext, and said he wondered his papa did not come home and sleep with him in his big bed. On Thursday last, mamma, said he, let's go to Nashville & see if he is there. I told him where you were gone. He said, don't cry, sweet mamma; you can't think how that has supported me in my trials. I wish I was with you—vain wish.

Pray, my dear, write to me often. It's a cordial, is a balm to my mind in lonesome hours. I treasure them up as a miser does his gold. I could write more to your satisfaction could I refrain from tears, but you know how to make allowance for me. Catherine Caffery returned in a few days after you set out. The stock wants their master's eye, all your household regrets your absence, all wishing & praying your return. I paid Fields every cent that I did not send you in my letter. He was not satisfied. I then borrowed thirty dollars & paid him. He was going about trying to sell your note. I have made nearly enough to pay him off.

Sister Hayes, Mrs. McKeane, Mrs. Jackson, Mr. Small, & Catherine sends their best wishes to you. Please to present mine to Mr. Blackman & Mr. Hines Carroll, & may the Almighty God of Heaven shower down His blessings, His mercy on you, assist you in the ways of life, in the ways of righteousness, be your shield in the time of danger, support you in all things, & keep you in the paths of wisdom,—the ways thereof is peace afar. Well, think on me, your dearest friend on earth.

RACHEAL JACKSON.

Mr. A. Jackson.

Mutterings of a Coming Storm.

Asheville Citizen.

Under existing legislation the Paint Rock line cannot be completed in less than three years, and the main line in less than ten years. Who can say what may happen within that time? We cannot reasonably hope that State aid will be increased beyond that now given us. Indeed, we may congratulate ourselves that we have been able to hold on to that little so far. We know that some portions of the State are getting exceedingly restless over the burdens entailed on them, and the mutterings of a coming storm are heard. An effort has already been made to organize a political party against us, and we have the most reliable authority for saying that those who now manage the machinery of the Republican party are determined to force that organization into a policy hostile to the further prosecution of the work. They admit this course will lose them the Republican vote in the extreme West, but they have counted the cost, and boldly say that they can easily more than regain, in other portions of the State, what they will lose here.

DE LESSEPS' CANAL BEGUN

FIRST BLAST DISCHARGED BY THE ENGINEER'S DAUGHTER.

France Gets to Work While the United States is Discussing Routes---Disastrous Floods in Cauca Valley.

PANAMA, Jan. 13.—On the morning train on the 10th inst., a considerable party proceeded with M. de Lesseps to witness the discharge of the first blast on the Cerra Culebra, for the great cut through the highest point of the Isthmus. M. de Lesseps was accompanied by several of the engineers at work on the Isthmus, and also by his daughter, 7 years old, Mlle. Fernanda de Lesseps, who was to apply the electric spark which was to discharge the first blast in the operations of canal construction. The mine had been laid in a very hard and compact formation of basalt at a few feet below the summit, and was charged with seven pounds of powerful explosives. The operation was entirely successful, and an immense mass of solid rock was displaced. The party returned to Panama by the 11 o'clock train, enthusiastic over the success of the first part of the practical experiments in canal building on the Isthmus.

M. de Lesseps and his party have been favored so far with good health, although some of its members, who have never had any special experience in the tropics hitherto, have exposed themselves unnecessarily. Strange to say, this has mostly occurred among the older members of the committee, whose liability to sudden attacks from exposure to the sun is the greatest, yet no cases of sickness have yet occurred. The visit has been a pleasant one so far, and M. and Mme. de Lesseps were delighted with their reception throughout. On the 15th inst. there will be a ball in their honor. For it abundant preparations have been made. With the exception of a banquet at M. de Lesseps' departure, this will probably be the last of the ceremonies connected with his visit to the Isthmus.

PANAMA, Jan. 13.—The Cauca Valley has suffered a visitation of the floods which seem to have been general throughout Columbia almost at the same period in which "the Norther" of November visited the Isthmus. In the early days of December the valley was visited by a very heavy rain. Foot after foot the water rose until it was many yards above the highest freshet mark designated by memory or tradition. The inhabitants for miles along its course were driven from their homes, and witnessed their destruction, as well as that of fences, outbuildings, crops, domestic animals, etc., etc. The river rose until it was over three miles in width, and went raging through the valley with an impetuosity which carried all before it. Several small villages were destroyed and some lives lost, although no definite report has been obtained. On the subsidence of the stream, people were aghast at the ruin. Everything was destroyed in the way of small crops, and movables of all sorts, cattle, goats and horses gone. Cocoa farmers visited their haciendas in boats, trying to gather their crop which had been left on the trees. They had to go armed in order to protect themselves against the immense snakes which had gathered in the branches of the trees, and which had been driven down the valley by the force of the waters. The losses are put in the neighborhood of $1,000,000.

Will He Bolt?

Correspondence of the News.

RALEIGH, Jan. 23.—The following is an extract from a letter from Rob't M. Furman, editor of the Asheville Citizen, to his paper. Mr. Furman shows his accustomed political insight when he admits that the tax-payers will not consent to be taxed to build the railroad beyond Asheville. If any one thing in the future is more certain than another it is that. But we would like to know what Mr. Thurman means by his ultimatum. What does he propose to do if those who control the question of selling this railroad still refuse to entertain any proposition? Eastern and Western Democrats have never made their loyalty to the Democratic party contingent upon a railroad appropriation. Surely Mr. Thurman cannot mean that the trans mentane Democracy are only conditionally Democratic. If he does, we think he mistakes them. This talk about an ultimatum should be discouraged from the beginning. It sounds so like treason that, come from whom it may, an explanation is in order. If one man has his ultimatum, another will have his, and so on:

"A proposition has recently been made, by a well known and responsible gentleman of New York, representing sufficient capital to buy from the State the Western North Carolina Railroad, reimburse the State for her advances, provide for the private stockholders, and guarantee the completion of the road to Paint Rock by July 1, 1881, and to Murphy by January 1, 1885. This is the proposition in a nutshell. The Legislature should have to be convened to sell the road. The Governor has not, at this writing, decided upon his course. Many of the people of the East, and certain members of the Board of Directors, and nearly all with whom we have conversed recently, have not hesitated to say that the State would not build the road west of Asheville. Former pledges seem to have been forgotten. While we urge these latter, they say the people are not able, nor will the road pay; but just as soon as responsible parties are willing to buy the whole road and guarantee the completion of the same, then it must not be sold. We do not wish to say too much on this matter just now; but the State being pledged to build the Western North Carolina Road in its entirety, it must either carry out the pledge in good faith, or sell to those who will. Our people will not permit themselves and their dearest and greatest interests to be made the mere footballs of politicians, or subject to the schemes of designing railroad gentlemen who have some personal ends to subserve. We but state the ultimatum of Western North Carolina when we say that the State must either carry out in full good faith her pledge to build the road entirely, or sell it, and that at once to those who will.

DAILY NEWS

SUNDAY, JANUARY 5, 1880.

GEO. C. JORDAN, Editor and Prop'r.

THE discovery of valuable mineral deposits in Alaska has recently attracted to that portion of the country quite a large emmigration. It is expected that the whites will soon be strong enough to protect themselves against the natives, and that the government steamer Jamestown can be removed from Sitka. It would prove an agreeable disappointment if Mr. Seward's purchase should turn out to be worth something after all.

THE Democrats of Philadelphia are outbidding both St. Louis and Cincinnati for the next national convention. The hotel men make liberal offers, and the Permanent Exhibition building is tendered free of charge for the use of the convention. It is capable of seating one thousand delegates and fifteen thousand spectators. These are strong inducements. If the western cities want the convention they will have to do something besides asking for it to come to them.

THE latest advices from Russia are of the most pacific character, and Germany affects to be satisfied with them. In fact all Europe pretends to believe that the present peace is in no danger of being disturbed. All the same, Herr Krupp's furnaces are at work night and day, and his mammouth establishment is turning out an immense quantity of war material. This looks more like future peace-making than present peace-keeping.

As $100,000,000 worth of foreign sugar is annually imported into this country, the sorghum movement is of importance. In the Cane Growers' Convention, recently held at St. Louis, Mr. Belcher, the official analyzer, reported that the tests of sorghum had been encouraging and surprising. One association in Peabody, Kansas, has invested $20,000 in this industry. Another at Crystal Lake, Ill., made forty-five thousand of excellent sugar this sason out of inferior juice from largely unripe canes. Both Congress and the State Legislatures will doubtless be asked to give attention to this industry, which however, is well able to take care of itseli.

M. DE LESSEPS appears, at all events, to be a man of actions, and not of words merely. Unless Admiral Ammen and his collegiates in the Nicarguan interoceanic canal project stop talking and get down to work, the sprightly and energetic Frenchman may anticipate them and consummate at Panama the wedlock of the two great oceans. He is already eagerly prosecuting the preliminary surveys, and engineering difficulties of the most colossal magnitude do not seem to daunt his wonderful courage. His success in making a fact of the scheme of the Suez Canal relieves him from the suspicion of being a visionary enthusiast; and yet his enthusiasm is one of the main sources of his power as a thoroughly practical man. He has a strong faith in human genius, which he relies on to surmount any natural obstacles which may arise; and he does not confess the wisdom of that extremely cautious policy which awaits the satisfactory solution of all possible problems before commencing an undertaking. He believes not only that the resources of his engineers in skill and intellect may be depended upon to overcome any physical difficulties they may encounter, but that there should be no postponement of actual operations until all the money necessary to complete the work has been assured. The funds he is sure will come as fast as they are needed. He declares that his friends in France will supply the whole amount required for the construction of the canal.

THE Brooklyn Eagle makes the following well-directed remarks on the subject of cruelty to children: "There can be no palliation for inhumanity to children. Helpless infancy makes the strongest appea.s to every natural emotion, and whoso disregards the wail of the suffering baby is fit for treason, stratagem and the penitentiary. A French farmer, to punish his little daughter for some childish mischief, locked her up in a barn. On his return he found the remnant of his infant. A wolf had eaten the rest. Not long ago, the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children found some half-starved orphans in a so-called "Shepherd's Fold," wretched squalid beings, uncared for and nearly idiotic from suffering. Tuesday an officer found a three-year old baby in a tenement house, locked up in a room, by an unnatural mother, and left for thirty-six hours without food. There seems to be no adequate punishment for such brutality, and when we reflect upon the possible cases never brought to light, a grave question arises as to whether our civilization is a failure, since it does not sufficiently provide for those of its heroes and heroines who regard the bringing up of children as something purely mechanical and better accomplished where tenderness is not permitted to interfere. There are stately laws for the protection of adults, but the protection of helpless, dependent infancy, as against the cunning brutality of unnatural parents, does not appear to have been profoundly considered by our statute manufacturers, who have contented themselves with fixing a punishment of a few days' imprisonment as fully expiative of a crime as bitter as murder. If more attention were paid to the proper bringing up of children, there would be less necessity for finishing the job by hauling them up with a rope after they have reached the age of responsibility."

General Grant in Havana.

HAVANA, Jan. 22.—It was 11:30 o'clock when the steamer Admiral arrived here this morning, having on board General and Mrs. Grant, Colonel Fred Grant and his wife, General Phil Sheridan and his wife and two young ladies. As the Admiral entered this port General Arias, Civil Governor of the province of Havana, several staff officers, Henry C. Hall, the United States Consul, and a number of American citizens, among them General Webb, met the vessel and boarded her. General Arias then tendered General Grant the hospitalities of the city and an abode in the Palace, and said that Captain-General Blanco expressed regret at not being in the city to welcome General Grant, but hoped to arrive before the party take their departure. The whole party then went ashore. Large crowds had assembled on the wharves and houses to witness the landing. On landing the party were driven to the Palace where they were received by General Callejas, vice Governor-General, and Joaquin Carbonell, Secretary of the Government. The party will sail in the City of Alexandria for Vera Cruz on the 12th or 13th of February, but before proceeding thither General Grant intends making a trip to Hayti, and probably to other West India islands, on board a United States war steamer.

The Milton Chronicle of the 15th inst. in an article on the proposition to buy the Western North Carolina Railroad, by certain capitalist North, says:

Milton and the township got the benefit of Railroad communication by paying dearly for it, and no thanks to the State for help. This town went in debt $10,000 and then the township subscribed $15,000 to get this road, for which they now pay a tax, and then these same tax-payers are taxed to build this Western North Carolina railroad, and many of our tax-paying friends construe the whole railroad tax into a tax levied to build the Milton and Sutherlin Narrow Gauge road, and the way they "cuss" the road and "cuss" us, is a sin, for which we hope the Lord will forgive them. And to stop these "cuss words," if for nothing else we shall be glad if the State sells out the Western North Carolina Railroad and stop the tax as well as the "cuss words."

The Remedy.

We print with pleasure, the following additional testimonial to the many already publishd in reference to Mrs. Person's Celebrated Scrofula Remedy and Tonic Bitters.

Raleigh, N. C., Jan. 15th, 1880.

MRS. JOE PERSON:—Franklin, N. C.:—Dear Madam:—We have been selling your Scrofula Remedy for some time, and it has proved to be a very efficient remedy in the cure of diseases for which it is recommended, and gives better satisfaction than any other medicine that we sell for the cure of Scrofulous affections. We are of the opinion that if the Remedy was advertised and pushed like the most of proprietary preparations, the demand would be so great, that you would soon have to put up a large Labratory, and manufacture it on a large scale, to supply the demand. Wishing you a happy New Year, and abundant success in introducing your medicine, we are

Yours very respectfully,

Having passed several sleepless nights, disturbed by the agonies and cries of a suffering child, and becoming convinced that Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup was just the article needed, procured a supply for the child. On reaching home and acquainting his wife with what he had done, she refused to have it administered to the child, as she was strongly in favor of Homeopathy. That night the child passed in suffering, and the parents without sleep. Returning home the day following, the father found the baby still worse; and while contemplating another sleepless night, the mother stepped from the room to attend to some domestic duties, and left the father with the child. During her absence he administered a portion of the Soothing Syrup to the baby, and said nothing. That night all hands slept well, and the little fellow awoke in the morning bright and happy. The mother was delighted with the sudden and wonderful change, and although at first offended at the deception practiced upon her, has continued to use the Syrup, and suffering crying babies and restless nights have disappeared. A single trial of the Syrup never yet failed to relieve the baby, and overcome the prejudices of the mother. Sold by all Druggists at 25 cents a bottle.

A Paper for all classes of the People and in every Department of life.
Independent and Conservative.

THE SUN is conservative in politics, independent in tone and non-sectarian. Its proprietors point to the principles that have governed it in the past as a guarantee of its course in the future. On all subjects of public interest it will continue to express its opinions, according to its best judgment, with a view only to the promotion of the best interest of the public. All the freshest news, at home and abroad, excluding only that which is prurient or sensational, is given from day to day in its columns. In addition to what is furnished by the Associated Press and by the local reporters of The Sun, no expense is spared to keep its special correspondence, that from Europe as well as from the Pacific Coast, and from its Washington Bureau abreast of the times, and to supplement it, as occasion may require, at every other point to which the current of events give prominence.

The Financial and Commercial Reports of The Sun contain at all times full and trustworthy accounts of all movements and operations in the leading markets, as well as that of Baltimore, with special telegraph service from New York of the latest stock and other transactions; while its reports of the ruling prices of breadstuffs, provisions, and other leading articles of trade and commerce, will embrace the latest intelligence, both at home and abroad, of each day's doings, up to the hour of going to press.

As a Paper for the People, filled with the freshest and most varied news, The Sun has acquired a reputation which is not surpassed by any of its contemporaries, while its large circulation, not only locally, but in many of the States of the Union, makes it the most valuable medium for all classes of advertisers.

VEST-POCKET CURE
25¢ DYSPEPSIA 25¢
CLERGY & DOCTORS
TESTE.

Rev. Dr. Mangum, Prof. Univ. of N. C.
I concur with Bishop Doggett in his estimate of the Vest Pocket Cure.

Rev. Drs. Jeter, Broaddus, Dickinson, (Bap.)
It is indorsed by the direct personal testimony of men of national fame and strictness of speech. It is not too much to say that no medicine ever had such support in its favor as a specific. The word of any one of the eminent divines who underwrite this antidote to dyspepsia has deserved weight Their united witness joined with the experimental use and approval of the preparation by well-known physicians, removes all doubt. It is beyond question, a wonderful therapeutical agent.—Editors Religious Herald, Va.

Chaplain Randolph Macon College, Va.
Many cases of Dyspepsia within my knowledge have been cured by it. Cramps, Colics Headaches and all sorts of pains from indigestion yield promptly to it. The cures of this sort are innumerable.

Rev. R. L. Dabney, LL. D., Col. Va.
It is highly esteemed here by the regular Medical Faculty and the people. It is excellent for indigestion and flatulent colic sedative, soporific, tonic, slightly aperient without nausea.

Rev. B F. Woodward, P. E., Va. Conf.
About twelve years I suffered from Dyspepsia. Falling in with this remedy, I gave it a fair trial. After its use I could eat anything with impunity. I am sure I am indebted to this medicine for what of health and physical comfort I have had for the last sixteen years. I have known many since to be relieved by its use.

Rev. Robert W. Watts, A. M., Va.
I have used the mixture in my family for years, and have taken it for a Dyspepsia Colic, which threatened my life, and was cured, eating any diet without hurt. I have recommended it to other sufferers with happiest results. It is the best tonic and corrective I ever knew. For prostration from Dyspepsia or Liver Disease it is invaluable.

J. D. Eggleston, M. D., Va.
It is a highly valuable remedy, and is more extensively used than any single article in the whole list of medicines, so far as I observed in my practice, for all the complaints in families from indigestion. I use it and recommend it.

Editor Richmond Christian Advocate.
This remedy is of tried virtue. I have seen Dyspepsia cured completely by it. It seems to be an antidote to our "National Disease." The ingredients are not kept by the apothecaries, and have been difficult to get.

What Mrs. Grundy Says.

That a man who cannot lead the cotillion is utterly worthless in fashionable society.

That skating on artificial ice is an excellent ground work for genuine flirtations.

That the dinner card mania has been done for all it is worth and ought to be stopped once for all.

That the florist refuse to send baskets on credit any more unless security of some kind is deposited.

That Lent begins Feb. 11, 1880, a blessed time of rest of which all should gladly avail themselves.

That people should be careful how they take in and do for every foreigner who represents himself to be what he is not.

That Derby hats for ladies have ceased to be genteel, and the sooner discarded the better for all demoiselles concerned.

That nurse girls sent out with the baby carriages should not have any more confidence imposed in them than the law allows.

Act in the Living Present.

Be not diverted from trying your luck by any idle reflections the silly world may make upon you, for their censures are not in your power, and consequently should read carefully the advertisement of the Louisiana State Lottery, to be drawn on February 10th, at New Orleans, La., when $2 may win for you $30,00. Address for any further information M. A. Dauphin, New Orleans, La., or same person at No. 319 Broadway, New York City, N. Y. *

Prejudice.

The prejudice of many in favor of the old methods of treatment is vanishing before the accumulated evidence in favor of Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure.

What a Pity

BLOOD AND SKIN HUMORS,

The Scourge of Mankind. Old Methods of Treatment and Remedies a Failure.

CUTICURA RESOLVENT, the Great Blood Purifier and Liver Stimulant, is the most searching, cleansing, and purifying agent of this country. It may be detected in the saliva, sweat, milk, blood, and urine in forty minutes after taking the first dose, showing that it has entered the circulation and been carried to every part of the system. It forever eradicates the virus of Syphilis, Scrofula, Cancer, and Canker, those terrible blood poisons that rot out the machinery of life, filling the body with foul corruptions. Taken internally in conjunction with the external application of CUTICURA, the Great Skin Cure, it speedily cures Scrofulous Ulcers and Old Sores, Salt Rheum, Psoriasis, Tetter, Ringworm Scald Head, Dandruff, and all Itching and Scaly Diseases of the Skin and Scalp.

ECZEMA ON THE SCALP.

BREAST AND LIMBS CURED.

Messrs WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen—I cannot refrain from adding my debt of gratitude to you for having placed within my reach the wonderful CUTICURA REMEDIES, which have rendered unnecessary all further experiment of physicians, and in a remarkably short space of time have rid me of a loathsome disease. I dispensed with all physicians two years ago believing they did me no good. The CUTICURA has stopped this unsatisfactory expense—even if it were necessary and I had the courage any longer to follow their advice—and brought the long-looked-for cure and happiness.

I have been afflicted with Eczema or Salt Rheum on my scalp, breast, and limbs for five years, during which time I have been under the treatment of physicians, or at mineral springs, or taking some kind of medicine. I have been treated by Drs —— of ——, Dr. —— of ——, and visited sulphur springs and taken numbers of patent medicines, all without the faintest approach to a cure.

April 1st last, I began the use of CUTICURA, which was immediately successful in my case, entirely curing me. I have not had a clean scalp for 15 years until the use of CUTICURA entirely healed it and left it clean and healthy. The other parts of my body were affected in a more aggravated form, but are now completely heal d. I believe myself completely cured. I shall continue the CUTICURA RESOLVENT as directed, for its wonderful action on the stomach and bowels and cooling influence on the blood. It will afford me pleasure, as I have done in many cases, to urge the afflicted to use these wonderful remedies.
Yours, etc.,
STEPHEN CROWELL.
NEW BEDFORD, Sept. 30, 1878.

A RUNNING SORE

CURED IN ONE WEEK.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER:—Some three or four weeks ago I ordered a box of CUTICURA for a bad case of Salt Rheum. The back of one of my wife's hands was a running sore. In one week from the day it arrived her hand was well and has remained so up to to-day.
E. P. DAGGETT.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

—Wake Court is no more for this term.

—The Revenue receipts were supplemented to $559.63 yesterday.

—A brilliant marriage in high life in this city is said to be on the eve of culmination.

—The new lady professor of the Peace Institute Kindergarten has arrived and will assume charge at once.

—A Cochin China goose egg and a fox squirrel skin were donated to the City Editor by a farmer of Swift Creek yesterday.

Messrs. M. T. Norris & Co., one of the old and reliable wholesale grocery, cotton and commission houses of Martin Street, appear among the NEWS' new advertisements this morning.

—Jeff Turner, colored, was turned loose from jail by Commissioner Purnell yesterday. He sold liquor where he ought not to have done so but he took the poor convicts oath and was released from durance.

—Maj. C. M. Steadman, of Wilmington; Col. John L. Morehead, and Armistead Burwell, Esq., of Charlotte; Maj. John W. Graham, of Hillsboro, and Col. T. M. Holt were in the city yesterday in attendance on a meeting of the Board of Directors of the N. C. R. R. Company.

—The Daily Dispatch was issued last evening and created considerable notice on the streets. It is quite a business-like looking sheet, and has a healthy appearance. An evening daily that furnishes the afternoon telegrams and gives the latest local intelligence will not fail to be of interest and value to the citizens of Raleigh, and no doubt the Dispatch will command a liberal patronage.

The Best Sunday School Map.

Every Sunday school should have a good map of the Holy Land. Messrs. Alfred Williams & Co., Raleigh, can furnish the best one published. It is on muslin, 8x4 feet, perfectly accurate and large enough to be easily seen by the whole school. Price $2.00.

Directors N. C. R. R.

The Directors of the North Carolina Railroad were in session in this city on Friday and Saturday. They declared an annual dividend of six per cent., three payable first of March and three payable first of September. They also paid to the "trust fund," or ten year bonds, twenty thousand dollars. This shows the Road to be in a most healthy condition.

The following statement from a well known citizen of Granville county is but another proof of the remarkable virtue of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy:

"Last March I bought a bottle of Mrs. Joe Person's Bitters and some of the Wash, to try on my nephew, who was badly afflicted with Scrofula, the doctors had attended him for two years and did him no good, they recommended Sarsaparilla, Iredine and other medicines which I tried without any benefit. I had not used Mrs Person's Remedy more than a week before I saw a change for the better. I continued its use until I had given him four bottles, and I am glad to say, he is now well. I know it to be all she claims for it, a certain cure for Scrofula, and unequalled as a Tonic and blood purifier. It ought to be in every drug store in the United States.

W. S. FARABOW,
Tally Ho, N. C.

Jan. 20, 1880.

The medicine can be obtained in Raleigh from Wm. Simpson, F. H. Heartt and Pescud, Lee & Co. Persons desiring to see testimonials of cures, can obtain circulars by application to them or Mrs. Person.

What Physicians at Home and Abroad Think of the Seven Springs Iron and Alum Mass.

In the treatment of Dyspepsia, Chlorosis, Anæmia, Nervous and Muscular Debility, Nervous and Sick Headache, Dysmenorrhœa, Menorrhagia, Amenorrhœa, diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder and such like organic or functional disturbances, I know of no remedy upon which I can rely with more certainty of satisfactory results than the "Seven Springs Mass."

W. F BARR, M. D.,
Abingdon, Va.

I have found no one single remedy to yield such satisfactory results as the "Seven Springs Mass." In the treatment of Dyspepsia, Chronic Diarrhœa, Anamia, Chlorosis, and for Chronic Eczema, I find it invaluable, associated with appropriate topical treatment.

GEO. T. HARRISON, M. D.,
New York City.

From my experience with the "Iron and Alum Mass," I believe it will prove the best medicine we have in use, for chronic diseases.

G. M. D. PATTERSON, M. D.,
Eaglewood, Texas.

For Dyspepsia, Ulcerations of the Throat, Inflammation of the Neck of the Bladder, Leucorrhœa, etc., the "Seven Springs Mass" seems to act with almost specific effect.

E. O. GRIGSBY,
DeView, Ark.

We could extend this list into the thousands with such testimonials from physicians from every State in the Union, but these are sufficient to indicate its application. The reputation of the remedy is too widely known to waste words upon its character. In ordering from drug gists always mention Seven Springs Mass. Price $1 per package or six for $5, sent by mail, postpaid.

MACHINERY.
90 ENGINES in 90 DAYS,
Sold by the Celebrated, Reliable and Established House of TALBOTT & SONS.

This proves whether or not these Great Southern Engines
AND BOILERS
give satisfaction.

We are now receiving orders from parties that have one and some have two of these celebrated Engines and Boilers; they will have no other at any price, and only ask that they may have another as good as those they have. Talbott & Sons are now furnishing the best Northern markets with their Engines and Boilers, and give the very best satisfaction when tested with the best made Northern Engines.

Look at the cost of repairs of this Engine and Boiler, after run by inexperienced men. I will name a few who have run them constantly under the severest test. One party has a 20 horse power Engine and Boiler—run for six years, has paid fifteen dollars for repairs; another a 25 horse power Engine and Boiler—run five years and paid five dollars; another a 15 horse power Engine and Boiler—run four years and paid three and a half dollars, caused by his own carelessness, and unless by unusual carelessness these Engines and Boilers never need repairing within from five, ten and sometimes fifteen years.

Those in want of
RELIABLE MACHINERY
would do well to correspond with me. I will give as LOW PRICE and REASONABLE TERMS as any Reliable Manufacturer.

THE GENUINE
DR. C. McLANE'S
Celebrated American
WORM SPECIFIC VERMIFUGE.
SYMPTOMS OF WORMS.

THE countenance is pale and leaden-colored, with occasional flushes, or a circumscribed spot on one or both cheeks; the eyes become dull; the pupils dilate; an azure semicircle runs along the lower eye-lid; the nose is irritated, swells, and sometimes bleeds; a swelling of the upper lip; occasional headache, with humming or throbbing of the ears; an unusual secretion of saliva; slimy or furred tongue; breath very foul, particularly in the morning; appetite variable, sometimes voracious, with a gnawing sensation of the stomach, at others, entirely gone; fleeting pains in the stomach; occasional nausea and vomiting; violent pains throughout the abdomen; bowels irregular, at times costive; stools slimy, not unfrequently tinged with blood; belly swollen and hard; urine turbid; respiration occasionally difficult, and accompanied by hiccough; cough sometimes dry and convulsive; uneasy and disturbed sleep, with grinding of the teeth; temper variable, but generally irritable, &c.

Whenever the above symptoms are found to exist, DR. C. McLANE'S VERMIFUGE will certainly effect a cure.

IT DOES NOT CONTAIN MERCURY in any form; it is an innocent preparation, not capable of doing the slightest injury to the most tender infant.

The genuine DR. McLANE'S VERMIFUGE bears the signatures of C. McLANE and FLEMING BROS. on the wrapper.

—:o:—

DR. C. McLANE'S
LIVER PILLS

are not recommended as a remedy "for all the ills that flesh is heir to," but in affections of the liver, and in all Bilious Complaints, Dyspepsia and Sick Headache, or diseases of that character, they stand without a rival.

AGUE AND FEVER.

No better cathartic can be used preparatory to, or after taking Quinine.

As a simple purgative they are unequaled.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.

The genuine are never sugar coated. Each box has a red wax seal on the lid, with the impression DR. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS.

Each wrapper bears the signatures of McLANE and FLEMING BROS.

Insist upon having the genuine Dr. McLANE'S Liver Pills prepared by Fleming Bros., of Pittsburgh, Pa., the market being full of imitations of the name McLane, spelled differently but same pronunciation.

BREWSTER'S
HARDWARE EMPORIUM.

This useful invention meets a long felt need for a more convenient method of removing Oysters, Potatoes, and other fried food, with greater quickness, and all at once, from the boiling fat in which they have been cooked, and allowing the fat to drain from them while they remain over the fire; thereby getting rid more certainly of the superfluous grease, the objection so often made of the unhealthiness of food cooked in the ordinary frying-pan is done away with.

By decaching the supporter, you have for omelettes and other things for which a drainer is not required, a deeper and better quality of frying-pan than has heretofore been made.
